The Doctors of Indiana Gathering for Their Annual Exchange of Ideas.

A Distinguished Company of Medical Gentlemen-Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias and Encampment of Sons of Veterans.

THOSE WHO TAKE CARE OF HEALTH. A Programme Including Papers, Discussions and a Banquet. The thirty-ninth annual meeting of the Indiana State Medical Society, which begins in this city to-day, promises to excel all previous sessions. Over five hundred gentlemen have either written or telegraphed their acceptance of invitations to the banquet to be given tonight by the Marion County Medical Society at the New Denison. The presumption, therefore, is that it will be the largest medical meeting ever held in the State. It will be called to order at 9 o'clock this morning in Plymouth Church by the president, Dr. S. H. Charlton, of Seymour. A large number of physicians arrived last night, and there will probably be six hundred of them in the city this evening, including almost a hundred invited guests from other States. Among the latter will be Dr. Wm. T. Belfield, of Chicago, who has a world-wide reputation as an author on certain subjects pertaining to surgery. He is also one of the fluest microscopists in the country. Dr. Isaac N. Love, of St. Louis, president of the Mississippi Valley Medical Society, and well known as a medical writer; Dr. Wm. W. Dawson, of Cincinnati, president of the American Medical Association; Dr. Everts, superintendent of the Cincinnati Sanitarium; Drs. J. M. Mathews, D. S. Reynolds, W. H. Walton, M. T. Coomes, E. R. Palmer, and others of Louisville; Dr. Wm. Porter, of St. Louis, a well-known jaryngologist and intimate friend of the great English physician Mackenzie; Dr. Bond, of the same city; Dr. J. N. Mathews, of Mason, Ill., the poet, and many others are to be here. Indiana will of course be well represented. The membership of the State society is about The membership of the State society is about 1,500. A new feature to be introduced at the present meeting is a registering committee, which will be stationed at the church door and take the name of every physician who presents himself. The registering will begin at 8 o'clock A. M. The committee has also provided a handsome badge representing the seal of the State society. The meeting will continue through two days. To-day's programme, with the customary business order, includes the reading of papers in the morning on the topics: "Is Craniotomy Legally or Morally Justifiable?" by George Rowland, M. D.; "Exophthalmic Goitre," by H. O. Pantzer, M. D.; "Acute Articular Rheumatism," by G. C. Smythe, M. D.; "Transmission of Certain Diseases," by A. W. Brayton, M. D. The papers in the afternoon will relate altogether to papers in the afternoon will relate altogether to subjects of professional interest only. In the evening the address of the president, Dr. S. H. Charlton, will be delivered.

The reception this evening will begin at the New Dennison at 8 o'clock, the hour set for the banquet being 9. It will be an occasion for full dress, although the rule will not be inexorable. Among those to respond will be Mayor Denny, Dr. S. H. Charlton, of Seymour; Dr. William W. Dawson, of Cincinnati; Dr. E. R. Lewis, Crawfordsville; ex-Gov. A. G. Porter, Rev. Dr. McLeod, Dr. A. M. Owen, Evansville; Mr. James Whitcomb Riley, Dr. L. H. Dunning, Evansville; Dr. I. U. Love, St. Louis, Mo.; Rev. M. L. Haines, Dr. J. M. Moulder, Kokomo; Dr. James Newton Matthews, Mason, Ill.; Dr. J. MEETINGS OF SECRET ORDERS.

The Growth of the Order of Knights of

The twentieth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias begins in this city The New York Store this morning, and will continue two days. An attendance of between two and three hundred is expected, although the convention at St. Louis will keep away a few of the members. Quite a number had arrived last night, and could be seen seated about | the hotels, discussing the matters which are to come before the Grand Lodge. They are good-looking, welldressed men, who have not reached the meridi-

Among the more prominent K. P.'s who had arrived last night were: Hon. S. P. Oyler, of Franklin, supreme representative; Grand Chancellor Charles E. Shiveley, of Richmond; Past Grand Chancellor W. F. Metzger, of Cambridge City; James T. Owen, of Evansville; C. F. S. Neal, of Evansville; C. L. Bartol, of Warsaw; L. C. Phillips, of Carbon; J. R. Morris, of New Albany; Alex. Turtle, of Columbus; E. F. Thompson, of Winchester; J. C. Suit and W. L. Kempf, of Frankfort; Frank Bowers and W. L. Brown, of New Castle; J. A. Humphreys, of Kendallville; H. D. Grohs, of Union City; V. V. Williams, of Bedford; Harvey Lafollette, of Lebanon, and others. Mr. Dunlap, of Franklin, is a delegate to the national Repub-of Franklin, is a delegate to the national Republican convention at Chicago.

While the session is not to be one of unusual importance, there will be some matters of interest under discussion, including the changing of laws upon the recommendation of the supreme chancellor. There is quite a feeling among the outside lodges in favor of changing back to the old form of making the terms of officers six months instead of one year, as they are at present. It will require unanimous consent, however, to consider the mata two-thirds vote to determine upon it. The reason the change is asked is that it takes too long under the present regime to become a member of the Grand Lodge.

The session will occur in the Grand Lodge (Castle) Hall, on the corner of Pennsylvania and Market. At 8:20 o'clock this morning the representatives and past chancellors meet at Masonic Hall, and from there at Masonic Hall, and from there march to Castle Hall. At the latter place there will be an address of welcome by Mayor Denny, who is a member of the order, and a response by S. P. Ovler, of Franklin, senior supreme representative, and one of the oldest members of the order in the State. After that the regular order of business will be taken up. The election of officers will occur in the afternoon. J. H. Russe, of Lawrenceburg, present grand vice-chancellor, is the most prominently spoken of for grand chancelor, and Judge J. C. Suit, of Frankfort, for grand vice-chancellor. There are several candidates for grand prelate, among whom are A. C. Hawkins, of Evansville, who seems to be in the lead; E. F. Williams, of who seems to be in the lead; E. F. Williams, of Terre Haute, J. H. Humphreys, of Kendallville and E. W. Thompson, of Winchester. For grand keeper of records and seal, Frank Bowers, of New Castle, seems to have no opposition for re-election. There are at least two candidates for grand master of the exchequer—C. F. S. Neal, of Lebanon, and D. B. Shideler, of this

This evening lodge No. 7 will exemplify the work for the benefit of visiting delegates. The reports of the grand chancelior, grand master of the exchequer, and grand keeper of the records and seal, which have been published in pamphlet form, show the order to be in fine condition. Graud Chancellor Heiskell stated that the plan which had been suggested at the last annual session for redistricting the State for the appointment of district deputy grand chancellors, had fallen through on account of the interposition of the supreme chancellor, who had decided that distriet deputy grand ceancellors could not deputizespast chancellors in lodges distant from the deputy to install the officers of their lodge. He also recommended that a better plan should be 25 North Pennsylvania street.

matured at the present session for the establishment of deputy district grand instructors, he having found it practically impossible to carry out the suggestions made in that direction by the last session. He further recommended that the present session should take active steps to revise the general laws. He recommended that the Grand Lodge senter the rank of past the Grand Lodge confer the rank of past chancellor on General Ross and C. R. Holland, and complimented the work accomplished by Grand Keeper of Records Bowers.

The report of Frank Bowers, grand keeper of records and seal, shows that lodges were established during the year at the following places: Poseyville, Riley, New Harmony, Fountaintown, Fontanet, Cicero, Sheridan, Kewanna, Chalmers, Burlington, Cynthiana, Lake Mills, Ft. Wayne, Oakland City, Valparaiso, Forrest, Knighteville, Oxford, Montpeller, Mooresville, Pennville, (Auburn,) Leesburg, Linton, Commiskey, Lewisville, Monon, and Remington—twenty-eight in all.

twenty-eight in all The number of lodges at the present time is 196, and the present membership 12,204. The total receipts by the subordinate lodges during the year had been $89,241.17; total expenditures, $50,718.85; total resources, $192,077.50; paid for the relief of widows and orphans during the year, $1,021.63; paid for relief and burials, $13,-742.24.

Sons of Veterans. The Sons of Veterans of Indiana will hold their first encampment, beginning to-day and closing Thursday evening. The sessions wil take place in the rooms formerly used by the Supreme Court, corner of Washington and Tennessee streets. Quite a rapid growth has attended this order during the past year, as it now has 200 camps in the State, which will be represented in the convention by 400 delegates. A Hall, at which Commander-in-chief Abbott and Past Commander Payne will be present. Wednesday evening a ball is to take place at

The camp-fire programme will include addresses by Mayor Denny, Commander-in-chief Abbott, Past Commander Payne, Capt. Fremont Garrott and Otto Gresham. Other features will be vocal music from a male quartet, a cornet duet by Perry Ingalis and D. M. Gerling, recitations by Miss Genevieve Elliott and Secretary of State Griffin, and the presentation of a sword to Col. E. S. Walker. Short talks by son of Veterans will close the evening's enjoyment. There is no contest over the offices, but quite a rivalry has developed be-tween the delegates from Winchester, New Castle, Garrett, Indianapolis, South Bend, Evansville and Rising Sun over the selection of four delegates to the National Encampment which is to meet in Wheeling, W. Va., this fall.

DENOUNCING ITALIAN LABORERS

Strong Demand that the Trust Company's Contractor Shall Discharge Them.

There is trouble brewing over the employment of Italians on the gas lines. It is understood that Mr. Gibney, the contractor of the Trust lines, has sixty men of that nationality employed, and is constantly discharging men here in the city to make place for them. The Italians are secured for 60 and 70 cents a day, and are, for that reason, displacing men here in the city who refuse to do the work for such compensation. The other laborers on the lines held a meeting on the south side of the Circle, last night, to consider the question. About a hundred and fifty were present, and a considerably larger number would have been on hand if there had not been a misunderstanding about the place of holding the meeting. It was called to order by J. H. Harlan, who said he did so simply to express the sentiment of those around him. He made a short speech advocating the employment of home labor and deprecating the policy of hiring the pauper elements of Europe to dis-place the American toilers. He thought that contractor Gibney was not pursuing the right course toward the laboring men in Indianapolis, and that the Trust officers ought to see that justice was done in the matter.

After a few remarks by one or two other persons, Mr. Harlan offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, as laborers, do most emphatically protest against the hard treatment we have received at the hands of Jones, foreman of J. C. Gibney Resolved, That we hereby inform said J. C. Gibney & Co. that we will not tolerate his actions in the employing of foreign labor, to the detriment of home labor.

Resolved, That we will give said J. C. Gibney & Co. twenty-four hours to discharge any and all the Italians they have in their employ, and if they are not so discharged, we, as an organized body of the workingmen of Indianapolis, and the State of Indiana, will rise in mass and drive the said dagoes from their work.

Resolved As we are citizens of the State of Indiana, and the city of Indianapolis, and expect to consume the gas of this company, as we expect to live in said city and pay our rents, as well as buy our clothing for ourselves and for our families, and pay our grocery bills, we should be allowed the privilege of doing the work.

Resolved, That we who are here assembled will stick firmly to the above, and that a committee of five be appointed to call on Mr. Gibney and inform him of our action.

The chairman appointed Mesers. Tinberger, Ira, Coonfield and Blair to act as such committee, after which the meeting was adjourned. The men are pretty bitter against Gibney, and are loud in their demands that the officers of the Trust should interfere in their behalf. The committee will eall on Mr. Gibney this morning. There is to be a grand meeting of laboring men at 115 East Washington street next Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of considering the interest of that class. Men from all organization are invited to attend.

The Indiana Methodist Conferences. The conference of bishops in New York city has announced the following as the opening dates of the Indiana Methodist conferences: Northwest Indiana Conference, Sept. 5, at Rochester, Bishop Andrews presiding; Indiana Conference, Sept. 19, at Mt. Vernon, Bishop Vincent presiding; Southeast Indiana Conference, Sept. 26, at Liberty, Bishop Vincent presiding. Bis hop Joyce will preside over his first Conference on July 5, when he goes to Salt Lake City to take charge of the Utah mission. A week later he goes to Missoula, M. T., to preside over the Montana Conference, and thence, on July 19, to Cheyenne, to the Colorado Conference. On Sept. 19 he is at the East Ohio Conference, at Salem, and on Oct. 25 at the Tennessee Conference, at Martin, Tenn.

Testing Cement.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade to investigate the advisability of establishing a manufactory of Portland cement in Indianapolis has been engaged in making tests of samples of that article which have been made by Dr. Preussner and Carl Spannagel, the Berlin experts. It is reported that so far the tests have been emipently satisfactory. Several small briqueletts were tested yesterday as to their tensile strength, and the results were above expectation, considering that several of them were made under unfavorable circumstances. The gentlemen from Germany are now going to man-ufacture a hundred barrels or more of the cement, so that a thorough and complete test can be made.

Board of Trade Independents. For the Board of Trade election an independent ticket has been selected, as follows: President, Isaac Thalman; vice-president, George G. Tanner; treasurer, Stoughton J. Fletcher; board of governors, Alfred B. Gates, John A. Holman, John P. Frenzel, Charles F. Meyer, John R. Leonard, H. P. Wasson, R. H. Syfers, A. A. McKain, Berg Applegate and John T. Brush.

Receiving Their Dividend. The payment of the dividend to the Fletcher & Sharpe creditors was continued yesterday by the county clerk, and during the day over two hundred persons received their money. The creditors are not given checks on the bank, but receive their money direct from the office.

A Big Day for Cigars. A statement in the Indianapolis News is to the effect that S. D. Pearson, manager of Daniel Stewart's cigar department, has shipped to the retail trade of Indiana 61,400 cigars in one day. Considering the competition in this line of business, this certainly speaks volumes for the quality of goods sent out by the Daniel Stewart house and the enterprise displayed in that branch of business.

FRIENDS OF GEN. HARRISON

They Will Go to Chicago to Enthusiastically Support Indiana's Candidate.

Preparations for the Harrison Club's Journey to the Convention-All Parts of the Country Renew Assurances of Success.

The Harrison Club met last night in the Criminel Court room, with, as usual, a large number of admirers of the distinguished Indianian in whose honor the organization was made, present. The finance committee reported that a large sum had been collected to defray the expenses of the journey to the convention. It asked that names be added to the committee. and the chair designated the following gentlemen to act in that capacity: Henry Coe, F. G. Pray, A. F. Potts, Col. Herriott, A. J. Morris, Col. S. F. Gray, Jos. Perry, Wm. Niekerson and Jos. Boswell. John R. Clinton, from the committee on correspondence, reported that circulars and letters had been sent out to all the different Republican League clubs in the State, asking them to join the Harrison Club in going to Chicago. M. G. McLain from the committee on uniform reported that arrangements had been made for a suitable bat and handsome badge. He said Mr. Lefler, of Henley, Hendrickson & Lefler, would have the bats at a suitable place on Washington street, and that they could be secured any time after to-morrow. cost $1.75 person to secure one at that rate must be known to the committee in charge, or properly vouched for by some one. Mr. Van Buren, of the committee on transportation, said that all arrange-ments had been made for good accommodations going and coming from Chicago. He suggested that those who wished sleeping-car accom-modations had better leave their names with the agent of the Monon route. The executive committee reported in favor of going to Chicago the Monday before the convention. Mr. Elam supported the report in a speech of some length, showing several reasons why the club should go on Monday, and as many why it should not go on Sunday, as some suggested. It was unanimously agreed to leave the city Monday morning, at such a time as to insure the arrival in Chicago at 5 or 6 o'clock in the evening of the same day. A committee of seven was appointed by the chair to take the names of those wishing to go. The committee consists of Horace McKay, W. F. Brown, H. C. Alleu, George C. Webster, J. C. Yohn and Jesse Ringold. The headquarters of the Indiana delegation will be at the Palmer House and at the Grand Pacific. A committee, to be designated by the chair, A committee, to be designated by the chair, was ordered to decorate and properly arrange these rooms for the club, and to secure a professional workman for the purpose. Invitations were then ordered by the club to be sent to the Republican traveling men of the State, to the Tippecanoe clubs, to the Morton Club and to the various Harrison Leagues in the city. The

John B. Elam, when called upon for a speech, said the prospects of success in nominating Gen. Harrison were very assuring. "The news from all parts is of the most encouraging nature," be continued. "Our candidate will have support from the Atlantic to the Pacific, showing that men in all sections of the country are considering him favorably. I believe that if this club and the State of Indiana do their duty, we can name the next Republican nominee. |Applause.] No such opportunity has ever existed for the State in its history. It is now generally conceded by Eastern men that the candidate must come from the West, and all their eyes are turned that way. The men who are receiving most consideration to-day are Allison and Har-rison. They are thought to be the most available, and between the two, as their different merits are studied, opinion is, I think, settling in favor of Indiana's son. General Harrison's record as a soldier, his conspicuous ability and integrity, and the fact that he comes from a doubtful State which he has carried by a handsome majority, make the arguments in his favor unanswerable. I think that General Harrison will have a good following all over the East, and especially among the men who have formerly been for Blaine. They are considering his candidacy and he is growing in favor with them. He is fortunate in being the second choice of a great number of the delegates. The supporters of all candidates feel kindly toward him. If Sherman were out of the race to-day, his friends would give General Harrison a generous support. The same is true of Allison. There is the greatest cordiality and fellowship between these two men, and the friends of the great Iowa Senator feel kindly to us everywhere. You remember that General Sheridan telegraphed to General Grant along the last days of the fight against Lee that he thought the thing could be ended if things were only pushed. You also know the reply that Grant then sent—'Push things.' That's all that we need to do now." [Applause]. The secretary announced that there were 471 names now enrolled on the club's list and that it was constantly growing, which announcement was received with applause. After the transaction of some minor business the club adjourned to meet Friday evening next. It is the purpose to extend to all Republicans in the State the invitation to come to the city and go

Very Well Pleased with Gray's Defeat, John E. Sullivan and his associates were in very high glee, yesterday, over the reports from "boom." Sullivan has not been openly fighting Gray, but it is well known that he, with the members of the Insane Hospital board and others, have been in a quiet way doing all they could to injure the Governor's chances in other States. It has been one of Dr. Harrison's boasts that he would "git even" with the Governor for attempting to oust him from office, and he believes now is the opportune time for him to satisfy his revenge. Mr. Sullivan was asked, yesterday, why he was not at St. Louis, and he remarked, "My services are not needed there Everything is cut and dried for Cleveland and Thurman. All that is needed is a little oil on the machine, and there are enough there to do the oiling." While there are enough there to do the oiling." While every man employed in the court-house is a member of the Hendricks Club, only one of them accompanied it to St. Louis, and it is understood that his voice will not be raised in the interest of Gray. As a Democrat remarked yesterday, "It looks very much like Gray was going to be slaughtered by his own State, and that the recent Democratic convention, which subbed everybody who was not for Gray, would be rebuked in a very vigorous manner. It looks as if the Indiana Democrats are going to have less harmony than anything else this year."

with the club.

How It Looks in the East. A. W. Clancy, of Des Moines, Ia., agent of A. S. Barnes & Co. for the State of Iowa, is in the city on a short visit. He was formerly superintendent of the Delaware county schools, and has just returned from the East. He states that, so far as he could learn, the chances for the Republican nomination for the presidency are between Harrison, Allison, Alger and Sherman. The East, he says, concedes that the candidate ought to come from the West, and the
